

These religious books are from my youth, my study and journey as a Gay Jewish youth trying to find himself in a world at war in the 1970s the confusion of the 1980s and the upheavals of the 1990s. How many years would it take before myself and other Jewish men would realize that the answers we were looking for were right before us, in the texts and teaching handed down through the generations? Here then are those texts, teaching and study that gave me understanding to who I was and who I am, a Jew first, a gay man second. By Arius De Winter
