

Surfers are like fishermen, we like to remember the day of the Big Catch, The Most Memorable Event, The Most Exciting Trip. To me, over my fifty plus years of going to places like Waikiki, Hawaii, Club Waikiki in Lima, Peru, Finding Punta Rocas (Rocky Point) 41 kilometers south of Lima, now called Club Kon-Tiki, surfing Southern California and Northern Baja spots, three events bring me to MY best memories, never to be forgotten. So like Coleridge with his Rhyme of the Ancient Mariner, I recite these three (and several more) memories, having stopped you for a while to look at what began on my yellow legal pad, hopefully for your enjoyment. -- excerpt from Special Surfing Memories. His enjoyment has been in the living, then writing of these tales. And we hope that you, in reading them, will find something that you can keep.
