

The autobiography of Robert Reid tells of his struggles through life as he became afflicted with cerebral palsy. Rather than let it defeat him, he rallied and with the support of family and friends graduated high school, college, received a masters degree, spent 35 years as a missionary in Portugal, married, and had a child. Roberts story is an inspiration for anyone suffering through adversity. Robert Reid worked as a missionary in Portugal for over 35 years. He has a B.A. in Latin and M.S. in missions from Abilene Christian University. He is currently a volunteer at the John Middleton State Prison, in Jones County, Texas, where he and his wife Rosa minister to inmates and tell them about the love of Christ. His passion is speaking to others about the blessings God has brought into his life and showing the ways that He can take our weaknesses and transform them into tools for His kingdom.
