

Indiana from the Air is a unique presentation of the state, from north to south and east to west, from the Ohio River to Lake Michigan and the Wabash to Richmond. Ninety-seven aerial views provide a new look at the states natural areas, unique landforms, cities, towns, rural life, industry, architecture, the impact of the seasons and of humanity, the cut of a plowed field or a parking lot, an eagles-eye view of an eagle...and much more. Many of the images go beyond representation to suggest larger, more spiritual concerns.
