

I know that out in the big, bright world, it is usually the mommy and daddy who announce their babys arrival. Well, theres still seven months before my auspicious debut, but Im announcing myself. Now. See, Mommy is keeping me hush-hush. And her cold shoulder has Daddy in a dither. But Mommy has always loved Daddy...and though they got awfully close the night I appeared, hes never uttered those three little words. (No, not change my diaper.) Gee whiz--parents! I just know theyll work it out because babies are all about hope...and this baby wont stand for anything but a happy ending....
