

Do renomado autor de Caninos brancos e O lobo do mar, este estupendo romance vai prender sua atencao do comeco ao fim. Baseado em fatos reais, conta a historia de um prisioneiro de San Quetin. A divulgacao de caso ajudou a mudar a legislacao penitenciaria norte-americana. Para escapar a tortura da camisa-de-forca, castigo legal naquela epoca, ele aprende a sair do corpo fisico e viajar livremente no astral. Quando entra nesse estado alterado de consciencia, ele nao so supera o sofrimento fisico mas tambem mergulha na memoria de suas vidas passadas, suas encarnacoes anteriores. A narrativa mescla o cotidiano na prisao e as extraordinarias aventuras que o personagem viveu no passado, sempre sugerindo as licoes que a alma deve aprender em cada encarnacao para nao repetir os mesmos erros no futuro. Um tema inesperado na obra de Jack London (1876-1916), o mestre norte-americano da ficcao. Prefacio de Michel Sokoloff, psicoterapeuta, escritor e escultor.
