

A sweet, romantic short story that will leave you smiling. A singing sensation Mandy Malone plans to debut a new song at a music festival in her home town. Pausing to wander through her old school yard, she's overwhelmed with memories of the young man who moved away just as she became aware of him. No amount of fame can equal how she felt that day when he leaned in to kiss her, and was interrupted by the school Vice Principal. Can those magical days ever be recaptured? Stranger things have happened... This short story includes an excerpt from A Forever Kind of Love, a full length romance novel.
