

This book is an amalgamation of two Korea Through Photographs volumes: From Seoul to Jeju and From the DMZ to Daegu. Fans of these books say that they provide the best value for money as far as travel photography books go. Fans appreciate the simplistic nature of the photos, which show exactly what the viewer would see if they were walking around there themselves, since no special camera, lenses, editing or filters have been applied. As noted in the other two volumes, South Korea is worth a stop on any traveler's itinerary and can provide a varied range of adventures within a short time and on a very small budget. This book contains hundreds of images from journeys spanning several months through the following locations: the cities of Seoul, Busan and Daejeon, and the provinces of Chungcheongbuk/nam-do, Gangwon-do, Jeollanam-do, Jeju-do, the DMZ, Everland amusement park and the Korean Folk Village (in the province of Gyeonggi) and the cities of Andong, Gyeongju and Pohang (in North Gyeongsang province) and a special chapter on the city of Daegu, covering Daegu's residential areas, industry, downtown core, cultural festivals, sporting events and scenery. From old temples and burial mounds, to skincare shops and central business districts, traditional markets and historical attractions, everything from scenery, architecture, food, people and consumer goods are shown in hundreds of beautiful photographs. The owner of this book may use all of the images as they please after purchase, provided appropriate source referencing.
