

La plus grande œuvre d'art jamais créée dort dans les cartons d'un appartement miteux. Ethan Muller, un galeriste new-yorkais, décide aussitôt d'exposer ces étranges tableaux, qui mêlent à un décor de torture d'innocents portraits d'enfants. Le succès est immédiat, le monde crie au génie. Mais un policier à la retraite croit reconnaître certains visages : ceux d'enfants victimes de meurtres irresolus. Grand Prix des lectrices Elle. Elu Meilleur Thriller de l'année par le Guardian
