

Her Mr. Wrong [Siren Classic: Erotic Contemporary Romance] Amy Dooley is no ones fool. She knows Slade is out of her league. Hes slick, rich, and sexy as hell. Trouble with a capital T. Theres no doubt in her mind his interest in her wont last longer than it would take for him to get her into bed. Slades insistent and finds ways to bring them together, and Amy doesnt know how long she can keep pushing him away. Or if she really wants to. Slade Jacobs hasnt been able to get Amy Dooley out of his mind since the night he met her at his friends wedding. Of course, that could have something to do with the scorching kiss they shared. He needs to explore the desire he feels for her. Since she wont see him willingly he has to get a little creative in finding opportune moments to run into her.  The Way He Looks at Me [Siren Classic: Erotic Contemporary Romance, voyeurism, HEA] Karen Stacey knew she shouldve listened to her friends about getting a new car since hers kept dying, but then she wouldnt be getting rescued by the sexiest man shes ever laid eyes on. Even though going off with a stranger is against every safety rule shed been taught, when Blue looks at her with those intense blue eyes, she agrees to let him take her into town to wait for a tow truck. She probably would have agreed to a lot more than that. Blue Collins would never leave a woman in distress. Offering to take Karen to his bar to wait for her friend to come and get her was one thing, but taking her upstairs to see his private apartment is something else. Kissing her is a risk he has to take. When she kisses him back, he is willing to do whatever he can to get more.  A Siren Erotic Romance
